COOKIES POLICY

The Client, whether acting directly or through its duly authorized representative, expressly acknowledges and agrees that such action shall constitute a valid, enforceable, and legally binding signature. This electronic acceptance shall have the same legal effect as a handwritten signature, in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations of the United Arab Emirates (UAE), including those governing electronic transactions and electronic signatures.

The Client acknowledges and agrees that acceptance of the terms and conditions of this Agreement through electronic means, including but not limited to online acceptance, digital signature, electronic confirmation, or any other electronic authentication method approved by the Company, shall constitute valid execution of this Agreement.

For the purposes of this Agreement, the Client shall be deemed to have validly accepted and agreed to be bound by this Agreement upon confirming acceptance of the onboarding and introduction process, together with the related terms and conditions, through the Company's electronic onboarding system. Each Party agrees that electronically stored records of this Agreement shall be admissible as evidence and shall be deemed valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

COOKIES POLICY

1. Overview

Neex Securities LLC ("Neex") primarily conducts business with clients over the internet by way of devices such as computers and mobile devices. In order to make our websites work properly and to help us understand the activities of our clients and other users, we sometimes place small data files called cookies. These are essential tools used to keep our websites functioning correctly and securely, making your experience quicker, easier, and more personal.

2. What are Cookies?

A cookie is a small text file containing a small amount of information that a website saves on your browser or downloads to your device when you visit the site. These files enable us to recognize your computer when you visit our websites.

- Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer.
- They are uniquely assigned to you and can only be read by the web server(s) that placed them on your device.

3. Types of Cookies Used

The following types of cookies and analytic tools are collected and used:

- Necessary / Essential Cookies: These are enabled by default and are necessary to move around our websites and take advantage of features, such as accessing secure areas. Without these, essential security features cannot be activated and services you have asked for cannot be provided.
- Abuse, Fraud Prevention, and AML Cookies: Neex must abide by laws on the prevention of fraud and Money Laundering. These cookies help ensure users are genuine, have not registered multiple accounts, and are not fraudulently trying to access accounts that do not belong to them.
- Statistics / Analytical Cookies: These collect aggregated and anonymous information about how visitors use our websites and platform, such as which pages are visited most often and any error messages received. We use tools like Google Analytics to monitor performance for optimization purposes.
- Preferences / Functionality Cookies: These permit our websites to remember choices you make, such as language preferences, geographic location, font size, and usernames. They allow us to provide enhanced, personalized features and keep you logged into your account as you navigate the site.
- Marketing / Targeting Cookies: These track browsing habits to deliver targeted (interest-based) advertising and limit the number of times you see an ad. This information may be shared with other organizations, such as publishers, for advertising purposes.

4. Session and Persistent Cookies

- Session Cookies: These are downloaded to your device temporarily for the period that you browse a website; they allow you to navigate between pages more efficiently.
- Persistent Cookies: These help websites remember you as a returning visitor or ensure online adverts are more relevant to your specific needs and interests.

5. How to Control Cookies

By utilizing our services and website, you are deemed to have consented to and accept the use of the cookies listed in this policy.

- Management: You can control, delete, or block cookies through your browser settings.
- Impact: If you delete or block cookies, you may have to manually adjust preferences each time you visit, and a number of services or functionalities may not work correctly or at all.
- Further Information: For further details on controlling cookies, you may visit www.aboutcookies.org.

6. Security and Data Handling

We take cybersecurity matters seriously and are committed to keeping your personal information safe. For more information on how we handle your data, please see the Privacy Policy on our website.
